Dear Miss Mainwaring:--

It was very pleasant indeed to hear from you. I'd be glad to come to Wellesley and almost any date would suit me, as far as I know. But you had better write me about it again some time in September, if you don't mind.

If I put down things too far ahead, I forget about them, alas!

As regards fee--I don't know--what did you pay me last time? I'm sure it was enough, whatever it was.

Brandt and Brandt handles all permissions of mine and Bernice Baumgarten there is the person to write to.

I'm glad you liked "Listen To The People"--I don't know whether it could be done just as reading but it might be worth taking a shot at.

Many thanks for telling me about Tink. I have been rushing through New Haven, on my way to and from New York, without stopping off. But I'll certainly try to see him--I had no idea he was to be there this summer or I'd have done it before.

With all good wishes,

Stephen Benét

As regards fee--I don't know--what did you pay me last time? I'm sure it was enough, whatever it was. Brandt and Brandt handles all permissions of mind and business connected with the person to write for. I'm glad you liked "Listen To The People"--I don't know whether it could be done just as reading but it might be worth taking a shot at. Many thanks for telling me about this. I have been rushing through New Haven, on my way to and from New York, without stopping off, but I'll certainly try to see him--I had no idea he was to be there this summer or I'd have done it before.
